The Day of Pentecost

Collect for Today

Holy Spirit, sent by the Father, ignite in us your holy fire; strengthen your children with the gift of faith, revive your Church with the breath of love, and renew the face of the earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Today's Readings

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in their native language. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

John 14:8-17, 25-27

Philip said to Jesus, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.'

REVD JESSICA MALAY is one of sixteen candidates in the Diocese of Leeds to be ordained in July

JESSICA WRITES: My priesting is at Halifax Minster at 11.00 am on July 13th (Saturday), and my first Eucharist will be at St Lucius, Farnley Tyas at 11.00 am on July 14 (Sunday). No need for any sign up sheet or to know the numbers for the ordination as there will be plenty of room. But if I could have just a sense of the number for those who wish to come to my first Eucharist on the 14th, (say by the 7th of July) that would be great, as they will be having refreshments afterwards. I'd really love to see all of you on these special days. Thanks! and God Bless! Jessica

HUDDERSFIELD EPISCOPAL AREA - PILGRIMAGE DAY AT RIPON CATHEDRAL – Saturday 21st September 2019 The creation of the new Diocese of Leeds means that we are part of a very large and varied Diocesan family – including of course three wonderful cathedrals! Bishop Jonathan invites members of all the churches in the Huddersfield Episcopal Area to join him for a Pilgrimage Day at Ripon Cathedral, on Saturday, 21st September 2019. The day will be a relaxed one, giving time to explore the Cathedral and City of Ripon, but it will include space for prayer and reflection, and the opportunity to worship in the beautiful Choir of the Cathedral. If nothing else, Ripon is a lovely location for a day out – and we hope the day will offer much more than that!

For more information see the Parish Magazine
