LIFTING OF COVID RESTRICTIONS

As a Christian community we need to have central in our thoughts the needs of the vulnerable and these should, if necessary, override our own individual desires and wishes. It is with this in mind that we continue to make the following provisions.

Social distancing where possible is still encouraged.

Face masks are now a matter of personal choice. Clergy still use them at the Eucharistic Prayer and distribution.

We shall aim for the greatest amount of ventilation.

Communion can now be received as either just the bread (in one kind) or bread dipped in the wine (intincted).

As before these measures are subject to change and will be reviewed regularly considering developments.

With every blessing, Hugh and the PCC.

Sunday services are streamed on Facebook and YouTube when possible.

The Funeral Service of Bruce Harrowsmith will be held in St Mary's on Thursday 30th June at 2 pm
